It is to be noted that in order to solve the current crisis of KYU, 16 senior members including the former president, general secretary made a written request to the president-general secretary of the union to urgently call a special general meeting on May 27. On the same day, the Journalist Union issued a notice calling a special general council meeting on June 3 at 1 p.m.

On June 3, a special general council meeting was held in Alhaj

Liaquat Ali Auditorium at the press club at 1 pm under the chairmanship of the president of the organization Farooq Ahmed. 126 members attended the meeting and gave their opinion. Most of the members said that since the court has not given any order and the term of the executive council has expired, there should be an early election. An ad hoc committee of 5 members was formed unanimously in the meeting by convening the former president of the organization Sheikh Abu Hasan. In consultation with the ad hoc committee, former general secretary Mallik Sudhanshu was convened and a three-member election management committee was formed. The election management committee announced the date of election on 22 June 2024. According to the announced schedule, the final candidate list was released today on June 13. All were elected unopposed as there were no contesting candidates.
