Curfew to be relaxed in 4 districts: Home Minister

BSS- The ongoing curfew in Dhaka, Gazipur, Narayanganj and Narsingdi districts will remain relaxed from 7am to 8pm from tomorrow, said Home Minister Asaduzzaman Khan Kamal.

“The curfew will be relaxed for the next four days – Wednesday to Saturday and it will now remain enforced from 8 pm to 7 am in those districts,” he told journalists after a meeting at his ministry conference room here this evening.

The minister held a meeting with seven ministers/state ministers, secretaries and representatives of law enforcement agencies at his ministry conference room to discuss the country’s prevailing situation.

In other districts, the local administration will decide about the duration of curfew.

Chaired by the Home Minister, the meeting was attended by Law Minister Anisul Huq, Industries Minister Nurul Majid Mahmud Humayun, Education Minister Mahibul Hasan Chowdhury, State Minister for Information and Broadcasting Mohammad Ali Arafat, State Minister for Labour and Employment Md Nazrul Islam Chowdhury and State Minister for Posts, Telecommunication and Information Technology Zunaid Ahmed Palak.

Besides, the senior secretaries, secretaries of the respective ministries, inspector general of police, director general of RAB and top officials of law enforcement and intelligence agencies were present at the meeting.