Students protest demanding resignation of principal and teacher of textile institute in Naogaon

Naogaon – Students of Shaheed Kamaruzzaman Textile Institute in Manda, Naogaon protested demanding the resignation of Asaduzzaman, junior instructor and coordinator of stipend branch Tahidur Rahman.

On the other hand, a section of students held a protest rally to save those teachers. With this, Shahid Kamaruzzaman Institute premises became heated from Sunday morning.
After receiving the information, the army and police arrived at the spot and brought the situation under control. Before this, there was a chase and a fight on both sides. At least 10 people were injured on both sides.

The students who took a stand against the teachers said that Tahidur sir had formed a group with some students of the college. They take advantage of all the opportunities given by the teacher. For this reason, they have taken a position to save the teachers. All irregularities are overcome with their power.

Practical exam marks give them 20 to 22 marks out of 25. On the other hand, general students are given only 10 to 12 marks. He is also doing irregular work in college. Tahidur sir has been doing all the irregularities in the silence of the principal. Students protested in the college premises demanding the resignation of both the teachers and blocked the Naogaon Rajshahi highway for two hours. Common students want to get rid of them.

Principal Asaduzzaman was seen playing a silent role in this matter.
Accused teacher Ahidur Rahman said that students who do not study have failed in 5/6 subjects. Those students protested against me.
