

Nikki wants to highlight Bangladesh on the world stage

Bangladeshi model-dancer Nikki Ahmed was recently honored with Global International Awards in Vietnam. She received the award at the 'International Beauty Pageant and Award Show' presented by Mumbai Global and hosted by Rajkumar Tiwari.

Nikki Ahmed expressed her feelings about receiving the award saying, "It's an international competition where contestants come from different parts of the world and I won this award. In one word, it feels amazing. I'm proud to represent Bangladesh. A global stage."

She added, "I had a strong passion for dance from my childhood, which I started practicing at the age of eight. In the future I want to represent Bangladesh on the world stage. With dance I am also interested in working in the film industry. Actively preparing myself for potential opportunities in the film industry, recognizing its key role in career building.

The event was attended by many dignitaries including Asia World's Brand Ambassador, Ms. Global Queen.
