

Sheikh Hasina fled the country to avenge her father's death: Allama Muhammad Mamunul Haque in Thakurgaon

Shamsul Alam ,Thakurgaon – Bangladesh Khilafat Majlis Secretary General Allama Muhammad Smamunul Haque commented that Sheikh Hasina fled the country with the final revenge of her father's death. He said that Sheikh Mujibur Rahman was killed by Awami League leaders on August 15, 1975. That is why Sheikh Hasina was thinking about how to avenge her father's death to Awami League for a long time. As a part of revenge, Awami League leaders fled to India. He said this at a public meeting organized by Bangladesh Khilafat Majlis Thakurgaon district branch on Sunday (September 15) afternoon at Thakurgaon Press Club Chattar Public Club ground. He also said that Sheikh Hasina has not brought anyone from her family into politics. Because he had no confidence in the people of the country. His thought was that he would leave the country after playing the twelve bells of Bangladesh politics. Sheikh Hasina has destroyed the country by 50 years of revenge politics. Sheikh Hasina did not intend to become the Prime Minister of Bangladesh. He also said that Sheikh Hasina has given transit to another country by overriding the country's interests over the chest of Bangladesh. Because he did not want the development of this country. His politics was to turn the country into a state. Bangladesh Khilafat Majlis Thakurgaon District Branch President Maulana Saeed Ahmad Saifi presided over this time, Central Committee Joint Secretary General Maulana Jalal Uddin Ahmed, Maulana Ataullah Amin, Organizing Secretary Hafez Maulana Enamul Haque Musa spoke. At the end of the speech, for the martyrs of the anti-discrimination student movement Praying for forgiveness.
