

Journalist's son killed in road accident in Mirpur, Kushtia

Kushtia Correspondent.. Journalist's son was killed in a road accident in Mirpur, Kushtia. A college student named Sadiq Amin Soumik Joardar (20) has finally died after battling with death for a month after being seriously injured in a road accident.

He died at around 4 am on Saturday while undergoing treatment at Shaheed Suhrawardy Medical College Hospital in the capital. Earlier, on December 4 last year, he was seriously injured in a road accident at Singpur on the Mirpur-Daulatpur road in Mirpur upazila of Kushtia.

College student Soumik Joardar is the only son of former general secretary of Mirpur Press Club Abdul Majid Joardar.

According to the family sources of the deceased, that day, Soumik and three friends went out for tea on a motorcycle and were on their way home in the evening when three friends were injured in a road accident at Singpur on the Mirpur-Daulatpur road. Meanwhile, Soumik was first taken to Kushtia General Hospital in critical condition. When his condition deteriorated there, he was sent to Dhaka for advanced treatment on the same day. After being on life support for a long month, he died at Shaheed Suhrawardy Medical College Hospital in the capital at around 4 am on Saturday. After the funeral in the afternoon, he was buried at the Wabda Cemetery. Mirpur Press Club President Bablu Ranjan Biswas and General Secretary Rasheduzzaman Rimon expressed deep shock at his death.