

BNP's possible council discussion, Monirul Islam Liton at the top

Riazur Rahman, Patuakhali- After a long 20 decades in Patuakhali, the district BNP council election saw a lot of enthusiasm and enthusiasm among the leaders and activists in the exchange of views and discussion meetings with all the voters of the upazila, town and union.

In a special survey, the candidates for the general secretary of BNP in the district are: Member Jubo Dal Central Executive Committee, Co-General Secretary Jubo Dal Central Executive Committee Barisal, Secretary for Relief and Rehabilitation Affairs District BNP Patuakhali, Senior Vice President District Chhatra Dal Patuakhali, Convener District Chhatra Dal Patuakhali, President District Chhatra Dal Patuakhali, Co-General Secretary Chhatra Dal Central Committee, Secretary for Finance Affairs District Chhatra Dal Patuakhali, Alhaj Monirul Islam Liton, son of the late Alhaj Md. Kanchan Ali Mia of Ward No. 4 of the District City Municipality, and the successful (president) of the current District Jubo Dal. The long-standing leader of the District Jubo Dal, including the anti-discrimination student movement.

Keeping the next national parliamentary elections free of tyranny in mind, the important leaders and activists of Patuakhali District BNP exchanged views and all the grassroots BNP leaders and activists.

His long political life includes a history of imprisonment and torture at the hands of fascists.

He is currently serving as an important leader of the Patuakhali District Jubo Dal.

Starting from the anti-dictatorship movement to the movement to overthrow the fascist Hasina government, he has fought on the streets. He has played an important role in fighting the Awami League and the fascist Hasina government's terrorists.

Several responsible leaders of the district BNP and grassroots leaders and activists believe that they want to see Mominul Islam Liton as the General Secretary of BNP as a selfless leader and son of a political family in difficult times to make the organizational activities of BNP more organized and dynamic in the district city.

The pride of youth Tarique Rahman and the symbol of democracy, the symbol of democracy, are continuing the war in the movement for revolutionary change and establishment of democracy in Bangladesh with the tireless work and sacrifice of Begum Khaleda Zia. At this critical juncture in the country, there is no alternative to qualified leadership in the movement to establish democracy. In order to unite the movement to establish democracy and the grassroots BNP and to bring back vitality among the grassroots leaders and activists with correct political practices, BNP General Secretary Monirul Islam Liton said in the district council, "I believe that if elected as the general secretary, I will work with all the leaders and activists of the upazila, including ending naked grouping-free politics, with the cooperation of all the grassroots, InshaAllah."
