

BARI holds Training on Pesticide Residue Analysis in Fish Sample

The Entomology Division of Bangladesh Agricultural Research Institute (BARI) has arranged Training on “Pesticide Residue Analysis in Fish Sample” at Entomology Division Seminar Room today (23 February 2025). Technical staff from the Department of Fisheries participated in this training program.

BARI Chief Scientific Officer (Entomology Division) Dr. Nirmal Kumar Dutta presided over the session while Director (Research) Dr. Munshi Rashid Ahmad was present as chief guest. Director (Support & Services) Dr. Ashraf Uddin Ahmed and Director (Training and communication) Dr. Md. Ataur Rahman were present as special guests. At this time, Senior Assistant Director Department of Fisheries Dr. Md. Maksudul Haque Bhuiyan was present as guest of honor in this training. Senior scientists from various center/division/section of BARI were present there also. Dr. AKM Ziaur Rahman Chief Scientific Officer (Entomology Division) gave the welcome address. The training was conducted by Senior Scientific Officer (Entomology Division) Dr. Md. Kafil Uddin.

Press Release