

Home Adviser asks security personnel to stay vigilant as people can move freely

Home Affairs Adviser Lieutenant General Md Jahangir Alam Chowdhury (Retd.) has asked law enforcement agencies to stay alert and vigilant to maintain law and order.

“To be always alert and vigilant to maintain law and order as people can sleep peacefully and move around without fear,” he said.

The adviser instructed the security personnel after inspecting security measures in four police stations, Mirpur, Darussalam, Adabor and Mohammadpur and its adjoining areas early this morning.

Jahangir said along with law enforcement agencies, officers of the home ministry have also been given the responsibility to monitor the law and order situation.

He assured all about safety saying that the law enforcement agencies are alert with heightened security patrol and setting up check posts set up at important intersections of the capital are also functioning.

“The joint force operation is also going well. Activities of the police stations are going on at a normal pace,” he said

The Home Adviser said he started the inspection yesterday (Wednesday) mainly to see if the police stations and security personnel were functioning properly.

Jahangir said that law enforcement agencies usually show laxity in their duties in the early hours of the morning and terrorists and criminals try to commit various criminal activities cashing in on the slackness.

“I have instructed the law enforcement agencies to remain alert and vigilant even during early hours of the morning,”

In response to a question about how long the ongoing joint operation will continue, the adviser said that the joint operation will be stopped if the situation improves.

The Home Adviser also said that a sub-inspector and a constable were suspended from Gulshan Police Station yesterday for their negligence in duty.

Jahangir left his capital city’s DOHS Baridhara residence early today for the second consecutive day and went to Mirpur Police Station via ECB Chattar, Kalshi, Pallabi, Mirpur-10. After that, he went to Darussalam Police Station via Mirpur-1.

From Darussalam Police Station, he went to Adabor Police Station via Technical Intersection, Shyamoli.

After visiting Mohammadpur Police Station, he returned to his Baridhara residence via Dhanmondi 27, Sangsad Bhaban, Bijoy Sarani, Mohakhali, Banani.

During the inspection of the police stations, the adviser visited the reception room, detention center and ancillary facilities of the police station.

During the inspection, he spoke to security personnel on duty and asked them to be more proactive.

On the way, he visited Zillur Rahman Flyover Checkpost and Kalshi More Checkpost and spoke to the officials in charge.

The adviser spoke to the general public at Mirpur Thana and Technical crossings, inquired about their situation, and asked about the overall law and order situation.

The people expressed their satisfaction saying the current law and order situation is satisfactory.

BSS