

CA leaves for Bangkok tomorrow to join BIMSTEC Summit

Chief Adviser Professor Muhammad Yunus will leave here tomorrow for Bangkok to join the sixth Bay of Bengal Initiative for Multi-Sectoral Technical and Economic Cooperation (BIMSTEC) Summit.

“A flight of Biman Bangladesh Airlines carrying the Chief Adviser and his entourage will depart Hazrat Shahjalal international Airport at 9am tomorrow,” Chief Adviser’s High Representative on Rohingya and priority issues Dr Khalilur Rahman told a press briefing here ahead of BIMSTEC Summit in Bangkok, Thailand.

The briefing was held at the Foreign Service Academy this afternoon.

Dr Khalilur said the BIMSTEC Summit 2025 will focus on seven key pillars of regional cooperation: Trade, Investment and Development; Environment and Climate Change; Security; Agriculture and Food Security; People-to-People Contact; Science, Technology, and Innovation; and Connectivity.

He said the Chief Adviser will hold bilateral talks with the leaders of BIMSTEC member states.

The High Representative said Prof Yunus will also be present at two MoU signing ceremonies during the summit.

On April 4, the BIMSTEC chairmanship will officially be handed over to Bangladesh Chief Adviser Prof Yunus, he added.

Chief Adviser’s Press Secretary Shafiqul Alam and Deputy Press Secretary Abdul Kalam Azad Majumder were also present at the press briefing.

The BIMSTEC summit is being held in Bangkok, Thailand, from April 2-4.
