

Distribution of leaflets of Gana Odhikar Parishad in Shibchar

Golam Mowla, Shibchar (Madaripur):: With the theme of 'People's Rights, Our Commitment', the leaders and activists of Shibchar of Gana Odhikar Parishad and its affiliates and affiliated organizations distributed leaflets in different areas of Shibchar Upazila of Madaripur to recruit new members.

On Friday (May 16) afternoon, this leaflet for recruiting members was distributed in various areas of the upazila, including important roads, shops, markets, municipal markets and Chanderchar markets.

At this time, leaflets containing the formation method of Gana Odhikar Parishad and the sacrifices of students and the public were distributed, containing guidelines for building a democratic welfare state free of corruption and misrule, i.e., the new Bangladesh of the future.

The leaflet distribution was attended by Gana Odhikar Parishad Madaripur District Branch President Md. Gaus Mridha, Senior Vice President Md. Tarique Rahman, Gana Odhikar Parishad Shibchar Upazila Branch President Md. Jamal Mridha, Organizing Secretary Md. Lokman Hossain, President of Jubo Odhikar Parishad Shibchar Upazila Branch Md. Kadir Sikder, General Secretary of Chhatra Odhikar Parishad Shibchar Upazila Branch Md. Alamin Islam Arian and other leaders were present.

President of Madaripur District Branch Md. Gaus Mridha said, the People's Rights Council is a council to implement the rights of all people. Our leaflet distribution program has been started with the aim of ensuring public participation in building a discrimination-free and corruption-free Bangladesh by joining the People's Rights Council. We will reach every nook and cranny of the village from the upazila to the union, from the union to the ward, InshaAllah. Join the People's Rights Council to build a democratic welfare state free of corruption and misrule by embracing the sacrifices of students and the public.
