

Model Niki Surprises with Her Performance in the Item Song of the Film “Chokher Jole Kotha Koy

Since childhood, she had dreams of dancing and singing, and now those dreams are gradually coming true. Niki has also gained recognition as a national and international dancer.

Through her hard work, this aspiring model aims to reach even greater heights. Directed by Jewel Farsee and produced by Enie Akter, the film “Chokher Jole Kotha Koy” features a beautiful item song in which Niki has performed. Her co-artists in the song include actor Hasib Khan Shanto and villain actor Don. Niki said, “The song was amazing, and I really enjoyed working on it.

I feel fortunate to be a part of such a beautiful number.” The item song was shot at a scenic location in Purbachal. “There were also several dancers and other performers in the song, which I believe added to its charm,” she added.

The film is expected to be released in cinemas soon after the completion of post-production. Model Niki further said, “I believe both the film and the song will touch the hearts of the audience and be very well received. Lastly, I, Niki, request prayers and love from all Bangla cinema lovers
