Former Prime Minister Khaleda Zia’s death Condolences of Manda Ideal Press Club

M Rezaul Islam Naogaon:: Journalists of Manda Ideal Press Club have expressed deep grief and sorrow over the death of three-time former Prime Minister of Bangladesh and BNP Chairperson Begum Khaleda Zia.
Today Tuesday (December 30) in a joint statement on behalf of the organization expressed this grief.
Manda Ideal Press Club President M Rezaul Islam, General Secretary Wasim Akram, Organizing Secretary Md Saiful Islam, Senior Vice President Lecturer Babul Hossain, Vice President Dr. Sohail Rana, Vice President Mohammad Mokhlesur Rahman, Office and Publication Editor Master Saiful Islam, Journalist Chanwar Hossain, Israfil Alam, Asim Kumar Das, Roni and all members including He prayed for the forgiveness of the departed soul of the deceased.
And offer deep condolences to the bereaved family members.
Especially the steps taken by her in women’s education and women’s development will be remembered. His death cast a shadow of mourning in the political arena of the country.

It should be noted that Begum Khaleda Zia passed away on Tuesday at 6 am while undergoing treatment at Evercare Hospital in the capital.

He was under treatment in that hospital for the last one month due to kidney, heart disease and new pneumonia. He was 80 years old at the time of his death.