Discussion meeting titled ‘Role of Content Creators in Social Development’ held

Md. Sanaullah Riyad, Barguna:: A family, a society will change only when it is possible to bring about positive changes in our humanity. Some family problems will come up, various problems in the area will come up. We have to create content that reveals the path to development and possibilities, problems and solutions. Which is also a place of responsibility as a good citizen.

And to create enthusiasm and interest in creating such humane and insightful content, a discussion meeting titled ‘Role of Content Creators in Social Development’ was held at the Bay of Bengal Hotel in Barguna on Saturday (June 6) at around 10 am.

The chief guest of the event was Barguna Deputy Commissioner (Acting) and Additional Deputy Commissioner (General) Animesh Biswas.

Under the chairmanship of German Bangla Press Club President Khan Liton and moderated by Lokbetar Director Journalist Monir Hossain Kamal, the special guests were Barguna Government College former professor Pratap Chandra Biswas, Barguna Press Club President Hafizur Rahman, General Secretary Abu Zafar Md. Saleh.

Among others present at the event were Barguna Press Club former president Chitta Ranjan Shil, Daily Dwipanchal Editor Md. Mosharraf Hossain, Journalist Mushfiq Arif, Daily Swadhin Bani News Editor Md. Sanaullah Riyad and content creators from different parts of Barguna.

Through open discussion, various important issues to be done to build a happy, prosperous and beautiful Barguna emerged. Which will later assist content creators in creating content.
