

Daulatpur Upazila Chairman Candidate Advocate Nurul Islam Kuntu, a symbol of public trust

Abul Hossain :: Advocate Nurul Islam Kuntu was born in a respectable Muslim family in Chakharircharan village of Daulatpur upazila of Manikganj. A shining example of honesty, dedication and public welfare-oriented leadership in grassroots politics, he is a learned lawyer by profession and has been serving with good reputation in the Manikganj District and Sessions Judge Court for a long time. His sincerity in establishing justice, protecting the rights of innocent people and ensuring the rule of law has made him a trusted person of the common people. His logic, wisdom and humane approach in the court have established him as a reliable lawyer among his colleagues and trial seekers.

In addition to his legal profession, he is actively involved in the politics of the Bangladesh Nationalist Party BNP. For 32 years, he has been playing an important role in the party's activities, inspired by the ideals of the founder of the Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP), martyred President Ziaur Rahman. Moreover, he has played an active role as a skilled organizer in the anti-dictatorship movement for the past 17 years. Currently, he is an honored member of the Manikganj District BNP Convening Committee and is serving as the Organizing Secretary of Daulatpur Upazila BNP. His role in organizing the organization well, keeping the leaders and activists united at the grassroots level, and building close relations with the masses is particularly noteworthy.

Advocate Nurul Islam Kuntu's specialty is his honesty and social responsibility. He sees politics not as a means of power, but as a great responsibility to serve the people. Being by the side of the common people in their happiness and sorrow, being vocal in realizing their just rights, and delivering the benefits of development and the 31 points announced by Tarique Rahman to everyone are the main foundations of his political philosophy. That is why he has gained wide acceptance as a popular grassroots political leader.

As a candidate for the chairmanship of Daulatpur Upazila Parishad, his goal is very clear – to form a terrorism and drug-free, education-supportive and development-oriented upazila. He believes that to keep the youth away from drugs and crime, it is very important to expand education, develop sports and cultural activities and create employment opportunities. He dreams of building an enlightened society by improving the environment of educational institutions, supporting poor and talented students and conducting awareness programs.

In addition, he emphasizes on infrastructural development, development of rural economy, improvement of healthcare quality and empowerment of women. According to him, the overall development of an upazila is possible only when people from all classes and professions become partners in development. He wants to work with the conviction of building a transparent, accountable and people-friendly administration.

Above all, Advocate Nurul Islam Kuntu is the reflection of an honest, competent and responsible leadership. His expertise in the legal profession and his acceptance in the political arena have made him a symbol of hope for the people of Daulatpur Upazila. Today, people from all walks of life hope that a peaceful, drug-free and education-rich Daulatpur will be developed under his leadership. Therefore, it is the vital demand of the masses to elect him as the Chairman of Daulatpur Upazila Parishad and take Daulatpur Upazila a step further.
