

Official Statement from the President of IPSPJ Bangladesh

Chittagong:: The International Parliament for Safety, Peace & Justice (IPSPJ) Bangladesh proudly recognizes the outstanding commitment and humanitarian spirit demonstrated by its leadership and members during the recent flood relief mission in Satkania, South Chattogram, Bangladesh. This successful initiative reflected our collective dedication to serving humanity with compassion, neutrality, and responsibility.

On behalf of IPSPJ Bangladesh, I extend my sincere appreciation to Amb. Mohammed Amir Hossain (Financial Director), Amb. S. M. Kamrul Islam (Programme & Training Director), Amb. Tahera Sharmin (Women & Children Welfare Director), Amb. Advocate Rupam Das (Legal Director), Amb. Dr. Abdul Halim Miazi, Amb. Marufa, Amb. Johura Katun, Amb. Eng. Abu Toyab (Youth Director), Amb. Shahadad Hossen, Amb. Enam Hossen, Amb. Nazma Akter, Amb. Ainun Nahar, and Amb. Ong Thowainur, whose dedication, cooperation, and tireless efforts made this humanitarian mission possible.

Their unwavering commitment demonstrates that humanitarian service is built on unity, integrity, and collective responsibility. IPSPJ Bangladesh remains committed to protecting human dignity, promoting peace and justice, and standing beside vulnerable communities without discrimination.

As President of IPSPJ Bangladesh, I express my deepest gratitude to every volunteer, supporter, and member who contributed to this noble cause. Together, we will continue working towards a safer, more peaceful, and more compassionate society while strengthening international cooperation for humanitarian development.
