

Dr. Sabina Yasmin Swarna can be the charioteer of the woman who accepts defeat and stands up

Md. Sanaullah Riyad, Barguna :: Not everyone's life story becomes history. It is not like it will be added to the pages of history. However, every person has a victory or a defeat. Some make life a battlefield and walk silently and quietly. And while walking this silent path, one day the announcement of victory in the war comes. A new story begins. And in all such stories, if a woman is the main character, then that war becomes history. Maybe even if the history of winning this war is not in the pages of the book, it will be an example for her children, family and relatives.

And this example has been set by Dr. Sabina Yasmin Swarna, a child of Pirojpur. Dr. Sabina Yasmin Swarna was born on December 2, 1995, the eldest daughter of Kazi Shafiqul Islam and Hurun Nahar, police officers of Porgola Union of Pirojpur Sadar Upazila.

The little Swarna, who brought light to the house, got GPA-5 in the science department from Dhaka Shaheed Police Smriti School and College in 2011. In 2013, she maintained herself on the merit list with GPA-5 in the science department from the same educational institution.

An era of life has ended in secondary and higher secondary. Now Swarna will have to step on the path of setting a new goal. Swarna did not lose sight of that goal either. With merit, Swarna got the opportunity to get admitted to the chemistry department of Dhaka University in the 2013-14 academic year. However, her mother's big wish was that her daughter would become a doctor. Giving priority to her mother's dream and wish, Swarna stepped forward with the plan to bid farewell to the famous "Oxford of the East" Dhaka University. Swarna's journey to a new destination began with the intention of touching a golden chapter. Another battle began with the smile on her mother's face in her imagination. In the battle, Swarna gathered all her accumulated wishes and left without touching the peak of the mountain of success. It was as if the strong willpower to arrange her path from golden to colorful has taken Swarna to this peak of the mountain.

Fulfilling her mother's wish, she got admitted to Shaheed Suhrawardy Medical College in the 2014-15 academic year. After completing this long journey, Swarna successfully earned her MBBS degree in 2019. Humans never came to this world to stop. They came to use the creation of the world to create themselves. With a great responsibility to serve the creation of the Creator. And this responsibility has been created for Swarna. Today, she is Dr. Sabina Yasmin Swarna.

When she had come a long way in life and brought herself to a wonderful platform, it was time to say goodbye to her closest people. 2019; Dr. Sabina Yasmin Swarna got married on July 26 of that year in a family arrangement. Another new chapter of her new life began. A name was associated with this chapter. Not only with this name, but with the person of the name, she will float on a raft of broken and rebuilt things until the last day of her life.

Md. Anwar Hossain, son of the late Abdul Gani Khan and the late Rashida Begum of Mollarhat Union of Nalchiti Upazila of Jhalokati district. The name is now associated with the eldest daughter of a successful parent. Senior Judicial Magistrate Md. Anwar Hossain and Dr. Sabina Yasmin Swarna, two people from different professions, have started their journey together. Leaving behind new dreams, new desires and strong winds, they will break through the storm and find a new understanding. A new chapter has begun for this newlywed couple.

On January 13, 2022, a son was born to this couple, named Alvin Safwan Khan. Dr. Swarna is managing a small family with her husband and child. Dr. Swarna started her journey with the determination to make herself strong by utilizing her husband's sincerity and strong willpower. Finally, success came to Dr. Sabina Yasmin Swarna. And this success was not achieved in a day or two, but rather the fruit of 5 long years of hard work, talent and contemplation.

These five long years were spent in BCS preparatory studies, sleepless and with family work. She is the 48th special BCS health cadre. Now, BCS cadre Dr. Sabina Yasmin Swarna has joined the ranks.

If you keep your life's goals steady and walk the path like this, you will surely achieve success. Dr. Sabina Yasmin Swarna will make a place on the pages of this newspaper and in the hearts of the readers, even if not in the pages of history. She will be someone who accepts defeat The charioteer of women's rise. She can be someone's idol in the future generation. In this way, daughters raised with great affection, care, affection and love in every home will reach the pinnacle of success like Dr. Sabina Yasmin Swarna.
