PM meets Turkish President Erdogan in Antalya

Prime Minister Tarique Rahman is holding a bilateral meeting with Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan in Antalya.

The talks began at 7:15 pm local time today at the Maxx Royal Hotel, said PM’s Deputy Press Secretary Hasan Shiplu.

Foreign Minister Khalilur Rahman and State Minister-1 Humaiun Kobir are attending the meeting, he said.

The meeting is taking place a day before the start of the UN climate change summit, COP31, in Antalya.

The Prime Minister landed in Antalya at 4:03 pm local time today on a three-day official visit to attend the COP31 World Leaders’ Summit. His wife, Dr Zubaida Rahman, is accompanying him.
